

Wyoming Library Association
Closing General Session
October 3, 2008

The Closing General Session of the Wyoming Library Association's Annual Conference was called to order by Brian Greene. A quorum was declared. Susan Simpson made a motion to approve the agenda, Janet Tharp seconded, unanimously approved.

Old business (carryover from Opening Session):

1. The ALA website is undergoing a major redesign.
2. ALA Midwinter will be in Denver January 23-26, 2009. Maggie Farrell reported they will have a booth there – it costs $25 to have an exhibit booth.

The 2009 WLA Annual Conference will be in Laramie, October 1-2. Maggie said they are looking for program proposals – there is a submission form available online. All ideas need to go to the Programming Committee, composed of chairman Jamie Markus and the vice chairs of each WLA section

Please complete your evaluations for this conference, specifically likes, dislikes, and suggestions. Drop them off in the box at the back of the room or mail to Ian Lindeman at Converse County Library.

Katie Jones thanked everyone who contributed baskets for the Debbie Iverson scholarship raffle -- $1100.00 has been raised so far. A quick poll was conducted to see if it should be done again next year, with a favorable response.

Outgoing-chair Brian Greene passed the gavel to incoming-chair (and Wyoming Librarian of the Year) Cynthia Twing.

The meeting was adjourned by Cynthia Twing.

Respectfully submitted by Jill Mackey