

WLA Outstanding Librarian Award 2023

Nominations for 2023 Awards open March 31, 2023

The Outstanding Librarian award recognizes the significant and outstanding accomplishments of a library employee in the past year, including service to the public and/or library community. It is also meant to reflect the goals of WLA and the library profession as a whole.

NOMINATION CRITERIA:

- Contributions to WLA and the library profession in the past year.
- Contributions to the employee's library and the local surrounding community in the past year.
- Original and innovative planning, thinking, and using resources in the past year for special projects and/or programs.
- Advocating the library's role and mission in the community in the past year.
- Additional comments and supporting documentation (optional; maximum of three pages).

If you have questions or need verification, please contact the WLA Awards/Grants Committee at wlaawardscommittee@gmail.com or travis.pollok@wyo.gov Thanks!

Nominations are due July 31, 2023

Your Name and Email:

Nominee's Name and Email:

- Please describe this person's noteworthy contributions to WLA and the library profession in the past year.
- How has this person contributed to their library and the services provided to the surrounding community in the past year?

- How has this person demonstrated original and innovative planning, thinking, and use of resources in the past year for special projects and/or programs?
- Please describe how this person has been an advocate for the library and promoted the library's mission in the community over the past year.

Questions or supporting documents (optional: up to 3 pages) may be sent to wlaawardscommittee@gmail.com or travis.pollok@wyo.gov