

President's Report
Conrado Saldivar
May 2022

- Facilitated email votes for Vice President (Darcy Acord) and Secretary-Treasurer (Chelsie Troutman). Both received the required 75% of votes for an email vote. They will finish the current year and plan on running in upcoming elections.
- Attended YSIG's spring meeting on May 5-6 in Buffalo. Presented on panel for Intellectual Freedom with Darcy Acord and Jennisen Lucas.
- Submitted WLA's Freedom to Read ballot
- Working on 2021 taxes extension
- Asked Chelsie Troutman to gather information about the Casper Literacy Council's relationship with WLA after they contacted her. A group in Casper is trying to revitalize the council, and WLA used to work with them on a few projects. WLA will not commit to anything until we have more information.
- Program Planning Subcommittee is moving along. Various proposals have been received. Working on keynote and author speakers now with a deadline to solidify at least one of them when registration opens.
