~~C. Business members shall receive communications, be eligible to serve on any committee of the Association, but shall not be eligible to vote or hold office.~~

B. Institutional members shall receive communication but shall not be eligible to vote, hold office, or serve on any board or committee of the Association.

~~E. Honorary members shall receive communications but shall not be eligible to vote, hold office, or serve on any board or committee of the Association.~~

~~C. Student members participating in the ALA Joint Student Membership Program shall have the same privileges as Active members.~~

ARTICLE XIII

Dues and Fees

Section 1. Dues

A. Dues shall be payable on the anniversary of the month the member joined. Members who are lapsed members two months after their renewal date shall be dropped from the membership roll. Lapsed members may be re-instated upon payment of dues for the current year.

B. Dues are set by the members of the Association, and may be changed at any official business meeting of the Association by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided that at least thirty (30) calendar days advance notice of the proposed change has been given by the approved communication and posted on the Association website. They may also be changed without prior notice at any Association annual meeting by the unanimous approval of those members attending and voting.

~~C. Active and Associate member dues shall be computed on a sliding scale based on the member's salary. Business and Institutional memberships shall not be computed on a sliding scale but shall be a set amount. Honorary members shall pay no dues.~~ The ALA Joint Student Membership Program shall determine dues.

D. Interest Groups shall establish their own dues.
