Ten Mountain Plains Library Association memberships were given away. Brian Greene has an offer for anyone who didn't win a membership but would like to become a member.

Susan Simpson, historian for Wyoming Library Association, said to give all old minutes to her.

Frances Clymer announced the winners of the silent auction. She announced that a reception would be held at the Simpson Gallagher Gallery in downtown Cody from 5 until 7 Friday night.

Election results were announced (see attached sheet).

The next executive board meeting will be held in the Pitchfork room of the Holiday Inn at 7 a.m. on Saturday morning September 29, 2001.

Mary Rhoads, at Trish Palluck's request, wrote letters to all of Wyoming's representatives as well as the First Lady Laura Bush inviting them to the 2001 Wyoming Library Conference but had received letters of declinations from all of them.

The attendees gave a hand to the program council/local arrangements for all the hard work they put into the conference.

Mary Jayne Jordan reported that there were over 200 registrations, which is great for outlying areas of Wyoming. Next year the conference will be held in Casper Wyoming and Ara Anderson will be head of the program council. Door prizes were given away.

Mary Rhoads was unable to pass the gavel at this time due to Trish Palluck not being in attendance due to a death in the family.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:30.

Respectfully submitted,
Teresa Authier
Recording Secretary
